Conference

1 (In open court)

2 THE COURT: Mr. Lawner?

3 MR. LAWNER: Yes, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: This is in no reasonable order, it's just 5 in the order you signed in.

6 Mr. Singer?

7 MR. SINGER: Yes, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: I can't even read this one. Goldklang?

9 MR. GOLDKLANG: Yes, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Is that right?

11 MR. GOLDKLANG: That is correct.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Nawaz?

13 MR. NAWAZ: Yes, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Gallub?

15 MR. GALLUB: Good afternoon, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Carr?

17 MR. CARR: Good afternoon, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Sweeney?

19 MR. SWEENEY: Good afternoon, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Cohen?

21 MR. COHEN: Yes, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Simon?

23 MR. SIMON: Judge, I gave the gentleman my card. I
24 didn't sign the signup sheet.

25 THE COURT: Now it's there.

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 Ms. Rothberg?

2 MS. ROTHBERG: Good afternoon, Judge.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Berezny?

4 MR. BEREZNY: Yes, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Coogler?

6 MR. COOGLER: Yes, your Honor. Good afternoon, your
7 Honor.

8 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

9 I have several letters here. I have a September 6th
10 letter from the Tartan defendants and Leon, for that matter; a 11 September 8th letter from Northville Industries objecting to 12 the September 6th letter; the response of the Tartan
13 defendants, a response to the Northville letter, that's dated
14 September 12th; and a response from Northville, again dated
15 September 14th. So there are four letters, two by Tartan, two 16 by Northville.

17 I was frustrated a moment ago because there was also 18 an agenda of other items that I misplaced totally. I don't 19 know where it went but I saw it yesterday. Today it walked 20 away.

21 Thank you. All right, so other than this issue about 22 the proper scope of discovery by Northville of the Leon
23 defendants, and therefore the deposition of Allen Leon, putting 24 those to one side for a minute, I'd like to get through all of 25 what I hope is littler stuff. It says on this agenda, number

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 3, motion for summary judgment by Leon defendants regarding
2 Northville's fourth-party complaints.

3 Who wants to speak to that?

4 MS. ROTHBERG: Your Honor, I think it's really tied to 5 the discovery issues. We're awaiting finishing that so that we 6 can move. You've already agreed that that would be a step we 7 could take, but we're in this issue with discovery, which I
8 think we should be able to resolve rather easily. It really 9 comes down to a scope issue.

10 THE COURT: Really comes down to a scope issue? What 11 does that mean?

12 MS. ROTHBERG: Well, an issue of the scope of 13 appropriate discovery.

14 THE COURT: Yeah. And then the fourth item says
15 status of appearances of fourth-party defendants. What does 16 that mean?

17 MR. GALLUB: Yes, your Honor. There are several 18 fourth-party defendants who have still not appeared despite our 19 efforts. We have --

20 THE COURT: They're not here in this crowd today?

21 MR. GALLUB: No, they're not.

22 THE COURT: Have you served them?

23 MR. GALLUB: Yes, we have.

24 THE COURT: So then take a default judgment.

25 MR. GALLUB: We will. And I just wanted to let you

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 know one of those nonappearing defendants has contacted our
2 office; they have an attorney, and I believe they will be
3 making an appearance shortly.

4 THE COURT: Well, anybody who's been served and their 5 time to respond has run, make it a motion for default.

6 MR. GALLUB: Your Honor, just related to that, there
7 is one issue: We have a fourth-party defendant named 400
8 Jericho --

9 THE COURT: Well, they're here.

10 MR. GALLUB: Yes.

11 -- and we are going to be letting that entity out
12 because it was based upon improper address information from the 13 New York State Department of Environmental Conservation. We do
14 have the right party, and we will, with your Honor's
15 permission, bring them in.

16 THE COURT: So Mr. Coogler wins and can leave.

17 MR. COOGLER: Yes, I hope so, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: You won. You can go.

19 MR. COOGLER: Yes. It was a mistaken identity with 20 the corporate names and the location.

21 THE COURT: Congratulations.

22 MR. COOGLER: It appears we're out.

23 THE COURT: Congratulations. You're gone, you're 24 gone.

25 MR. COOGLER: And I can now -- do I need to withdraw

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 my appearance?

2 THE COURT: No. What are you going to do, a notice of 3 discontinuance?

4 MR. GALLUB: We will, your Honor, and we will 5 substitute in the right party.

6 THE COURT: File a notice of discontinuance.
7 You don't have to do anything.

8 MR. COOGLER: Am I excused, your Honor?

9 THE COURT: Absolutely.

10 MR. COOGLER: Thank you so much.

11 THE COURT: Then it says fifth-party practice to bring 12 contract indemnity and contribution claims against fifth
13 parties.

14 Who wants to speak to that? Tell me your name if 15 you're going to talk, who you are.

16 MR. SINGER: David Singer. I represent Camson
17 Equities.

18 THE COURT: What do you want to say?

19 MR. SINGER: There are fifth-party issues in terms of 20 contracts --

21 THE COURT: What's the issue? What's the issue for me
22 today?

23 MR. SINGER: The issue is, we'd like to set a schedule
24 to serve fifth-party practice.

25 THE COURT: You don't need me. Serve them. What do

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 you need me for?

2 MR. SINGER: Just for time lines deadlines, when the 3 Court --

4 THE COURT: All right, fine. Serve them two weeks
5 from today. You want a deadline? I'm happy to give you one.
6 Serve them. All right, fine to bring in any fifth-party
7 defendants, although I've never seen fifth-party defendants
8 before in over 20 years, but that's OK. The time to serve 9 fifth-party defendants? I want to say actually two weeks from 10 tomorrow. That's Friday. Today is the 16th, so
11 September 30th.

12 What? Who you are?

13 MR. SWEENEY: Paul Sweeney, your Honor, for the 14 fourth-party defendants Bill Wolf Petroleum and Albertson
15 Realty.

16 I think a two-week --

17 THE COURT: You want three weeks? You want two,
18 you're one, Mr. Coogler won, now you won, you can have -- I'm 19 sorry, you can have till October 7th and that's the end of it.
20 Serve these people. Fifth parties? Kind of a little 21 ridiculous. You want to do it? Do it fast. You came here to 22 talk about it and I'm giving you a third week because you asked
23 so well. You have three weeks.

24 MR. SWEENEY: OK, your Honor, we have a lessee, who 25 potentially it's going to take some time --

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 THE COURT: I don't wish to hear with your problems.
2 You want to bring in some lessee or something, serve them.

3 What's the last thing, fifth-party practice to 4 bring -- that may be you. Is that Wolf Petroleum and 5 Albertson?

6 MR. SWEENEY: That was me, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: So you have the same request as Camson,
8 but what's good for Wolf is good for Camson. You can all have 9 three weeks.

10 MR. SINGER: Thank you, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: So that leaves the issue that was briefed
12 by letter, right, this whole issue?

13 Now, the discouraging things about these letters is,
14 Judge Freeman was asked to take on this disputatious case, if 15 that's a word, so I wouldn't have to see you again. That was 16 my big hope, I would never have to see you again except maybe
17 on the morning of trial but short of that, that was my great 18 hope, and suddenly I'm back inundated with -- I don't know what 19 all this comes to -- a hundred pages. Let the record reflect 20 that I'm struggling to lift the weight of the letters which 21 total a hundred pages. I was hoping Judge Freeman would deal 22 with this.

23 Why do I have to deal with this, Ms. Rothberg? I
24 thought it was you who said I had to deal with it.

25 MS. ROTHBERG: Judge, you don't --

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 THE COURT: I do have to. You said you thought it
2 belonged here, not there, why?

3 MS. ROTHBERG: Well, we had this conference with you
4 scheduled for the 15th, and since the issues that arose in 5 connection with this discovery directly related to our last
6 conference on May 31 --

7 THE COURT: In what way directly related?

8 MS. ROTHBERG: At our last conference, just to refresh
9 your recollection, we discussed initially that we were going to 10 try and bring a motion to dismiss. And you, quite rightly,
11 talked us out of doing that; I actually came to agree fully.
12 What we decided was that we could proceed with a summary
13 judgment motion, but Northville had asked for discovery of Leon
14 Holdings, Leon Petroleum and some supplemental discovery
15 against Tartan.

16 THE COURT: Right, they wanted to find out whether 17 there's successor liability --

18 MS. ROTHBERG: Correct, Judge.

19 THE COURT: -- or alter ego liability. And I don't 20 understand why they shouldn't be allowed to figure out whether 21 there's successor liability or alter ego liability. You can't 22 figure it out without some discovery. The courts list all 23 these factors for figuring it out. The leading case is 24 Passalacqua, I think, Second Circuit 1991, and it says some of 25 the factors are the absence of formalities, such as

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 recollection of directors, the keeping of corporate records
2 inadequate capitalization, overlapping ownership, officers,
3 director and personnel, common office space, and whether the 4 corporations are treated as independent profit centers.

5 So to get at that, Northville seeks records that
6 include tax returns and financial statements from the Leon
7 entities, documents that would reflect salary benefits and 8 health insurance of the officers and employees of the Leon
9 entities and the Tartan defendants. And this might go to the 10 relationship with the two entities and whether there should be 11 successor liability or alter ego liability.

12 So why shouldn't I allow it?

13 MS. ROTHBERG: Well, your Honor, we did produce
14 operating documents. We produced bank information with respect
15 to which account was used in different ways.

16 THE COURT: And I'm grateful for whatever you did
17 produce, but why shouldn't I allow them to discover the 18 remainder of these records so they can either give up on either
19 theory or prove it up?

20 MS. ROTHBERG: Well, your Honor, I guess, at least in 21 my experience, I'm not familiar with financial records being 22 produced on bare allegations that there's successor liability.

23 THE COURT: What's so bare? I thought when Leon
24 purchased the assets of Tartan anyway, they agreed to defend 25 and hold Tartan harmless for these MTBE litigations claims.

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 Just starting with that, it seems that they took on successor
2 liability, so to speak.

3 MS. ROTHBERG: Well, they took on assets, your Honor,
4 and there were very specific liabilities that Tartan continued
5 to maintain, and assets they continued to maintain. For 6 example, there were insurance policies available that probably 7 would have responded to this, but they also responded to other
8 Tartan liabilities --

9 THE COURT: That may be.

10 MS. ROTHBERG: That Tartan kept.

11 THE COURT: But Leon agreed apparently did agree to 12 hold harm Tartan harmless with these MTBE claims.

13 MS. ROTHBERG: Correct, but I don't know that then
14 opens the door to sharing tax returns and sharing sensitive tax
15 information.

16 THE COURT: You could agree to it, you could say yes,
17 we have successor liability, there's no point having this 18 discovery. That's an option. I understand the desire to keep 19 your records private, but that's sort of the choice you have.
20 It's a Hobson's choice for sure, but you can say we're not 21 going to contest this, we agreed to the defendant to hold 22 Tartan harmless, so we accept if anybody has liability for 23 Tartan, it's us.

24 MS. ROTHBERG: But Leon has said -- and I have made
25 that statement in this courtroom multiple times -- Leon has

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 taken on the responsibility to defend and indemnify Tartan.
2 That does not mean that they have stepped into Tartan's shoes
3 as to everything but we're honoring our contractual obligations
4 here.

5 THE COURT: To defend and indemnify, you said?

6 MS. ROTHBERG: Yes, that's what they agreed to do.

7 THE COURT: You did say defend and indemnify?

8 MS. ROTHBERG: Correct, Judge.

9 THE COURT: What more is there, Mr. Gallub? If 10 they're not only going to defend but indemnify, what more do
11 you get by spending time and money proving up what goes to 12 liability? To the extent Tartan is liable, Leon is covered,
13 they're indemnified.

14 MR. GALLUB: That's Leon Petroleum. Leon Holdings is 15 a different entity. Leon Holdings did not take on that 16 responsibility. We maintain, and based upon the matters that 17 we put before you, that there --

18 THE COURT: So it's only about Leon Holdings, because 19 Leon Petroleum is covering, you're safe. Any judgment you
20 could ever get against Tartan, Leon Petroleum has said we're 21 covering.

22 MR. GALLUB: Right. And that's tied into the 23 successor -- the alter ego liability.

24 THE COURT: You can't win more. She said, we are 25 covering, we're indemnifying fully, so that takes care of Leon

19fkmtbc

Conference

1     Petroleum.

2             MR. GALLUB:   There's a related issue.   The 3     indemnification is an indemnification with respect to what
4     Tartan did during the time that Tartan had the property.   There
5     was a period of time that Leon Petroleum had the property.
6     Then this was a period of time that Leon Holdings --

7             THE COURT:   Well, that's not successor liability.   If 8     you have a case, direct case so to speak, against Leon
9     Petroleum and you prove it up, Leon Petroleum is liable?

10            MR. GALLUB:   No, but we believe they're one and the 11     same.

12            THE COURT:   You're covered, Mr. Gallub.   You don't 13     need belts and suspenders and snaps and buckles.   I mean you
14     have the indemnification for whatever Tartan did, you have 15     direct liability for whatever Leon Petroleum did.   So after 16     they take over, if they do something that causes them to be 17     directly liable, you've got it.   So you got them for that, you
18     got them for the period that Tartan had it, because they have 19     fully indemnified Tartan, so I think we're done with Leon
20     Petroleum, we can turn to Leon Holdings.

21            MR. GALLUB:   Well, Leon Holdings is the issue.

22            THE COURT:   OK, I'm just trying to narrow my problems.
23     Do you agree we're done talking about Leon Petroleum?

24            MR. GALLUB:   No, because Leon Holdings -- the alter
25     ego issue as between Holdings and Petroleum is a very relevant

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 issue. Now, we've been before you on this, your Honor, and the
2 central issue that's involved here is that you've allowed them
3 to move for summary judgment, they decided not to, and rightly
4 so, not to move to dismiss the complaint.

5 THE COURT: Right.

6 MR. GALLUB: In allowing them to move for summary
7 judgment, that entitles us to discovery regarding the issues.
8 And respectfully, they can't come forth --

9 THE COURT: Now I understand. You seem to be saying
10 the sole issue is the relationship between Leon Petroleum and 11 Leon Holdings, right, not so much successor liability between 12 Tartan and Leon Petroleum but whether Leon Holdings is the 13 alter ego of Leon Petroleum?

14 MR. GALLUB: I think that's the central issue, yeah.

15 THE COURT: That's a different issue, so we're no
16 longer in successor liability, we're over in alter ego world.
17 If you think that you can't make a statement that Leon 18 Holdings, whatever that is, which may have all the assets and 19 all the money or all the insurance, is going to indemnify, just 20 as you said Leon Petroleum would, then again I think I have to 21 allow this discovery, because there could be gamesmanship here;
22 it could be Leon Petroleum's indemnification is worthless
23 because they don't have any assets, it may be that Leon
24 Holdings has all the assets, I don't know that.

25 MS. ROTHBERG: Leon Petroleum actually is the

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 operating company, your Honor, and has the assets. Leon
2 Holdings acquired one single asset in 2005, the CP Service
3 Station, the one station in Carle Place. Otherwise, Leon
4 Petroleum is --

5 THE COURT: Who's got the insurance?

6 MS. ROTHBERG: There is no insurance. It's Leon
7 Petroleum that's standing behind everything. And what we have
8 suggested, your Honor, is that if Northville is unsatisfied
9 with what discovery we've given, we have suggested that they
10 take the deposition of Mr. Leon, ask him what the relationships
11 are, who has the assets, and what those assets are, and what 12 the corporate organization is, if he's not satisfied with the 13 operational documents.

14 THE COURT: Then what? After he does that, then what?

15 MS. ROTHBERG: Well, if there is information that 16 comes out of that deposition that suggests that we have been 17 too conservative in the production of our information, and 18 there is indicia of either the movement of assets in a 19 particular direction that they shouldn't be going or that 20 there's some involvement by Leon Holdings or Leon Petroleum
21 that is not in keeping with the role that they're playing, then 22 certainly that is a basis to defend summary judgment, or to ask
23 for additional discovery. But with respect --

24 THE COURT: And then redepose Mr. Leon?

25 MS. ROTHBERG: And if that is appropriate, after

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 documents are produced, then, yes, your Honor, that's --

2 THE COURT: That's not a bad idea. That's like a
3 discovery deposition. Take Leon, figure out anything you can 4 from him; then tailor the document requests if you think it's 5 still needed; then if you get documents that lead to new 6 questions, you'll be allowed to redepose him.

7 MR. GALLUB: Look, Judge, that's certainly a way to 8 go, but I think we're going to be back at square one.

9 THE COURT: But you will have heard a lot. So we'll 10 be back, and you will have learned a lot. That's a good idea, 11 let's do it. Take Leon now, but with no limitations to 12 redeposing him and no limitation to requesting documents
13 postdeposition if you are not satisfied. It may be that there
14 will be a miracle and after you hear what he has to say, you're 15 satisfied you've got the right party on the hook because 16 Ms. Rothberg has said on the record at this time -- and she 17 says on previous occasions -- there's no question that Leon 18 Petroleum is stepping up to the plate, so to speak, in terms of 19 indemnifying any liability that can be proved against Tartan,
20 and if you prove direct liability, she knows she's on the hook
21 for that. So that's easy; it's not a matter of alter ego or 22 successor liability. So the only issue is Leon Holdings. Talk
23 to this guy. It may help you. It's like having a discovery
24 deposition of the person who knows most about the records.
25 It's probably him anyway.

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 MR. GALLUB: But then we're relegated, your Honor,
2 with regard to his self-serving statement rather than --

3 THE COURT: You're not relegated to anything. Why
4 don't you worry about it after you take him. You may learn a
5 lot. People take custodian depositions for a reason. You know
6 why? So they can target their document requests instead of 7 being blunderbussed. We encourage custodian depositions these 8 days. Essentially what it is, is he's the guy, it's basically
9 a one-man kind of show, he's the guy, he has the most knowledge
10 of the records.

11 MS. ROTHBERG: It is, Judge --

12 MR. GALLUB: If we're not hamstrung, that's fine.

13 THE COURT: You can ask for records and ask for a
14 redemption if needed.

15 MR. GALLUB: OK.

16 MS. ROTHBERG: Judge, if I could, I don't think it's 17 appropriate to ask Mr. Leon what his annual salary is. You can 18 ask --

19 THE COURT: I don't know the relevance --

20 MS. ROTHBERG: -- who he draws it from --

21 THE COURT: Right.

22 MS. ROTHBERG: -- but to say how much money did you
23 make this year, I think, is wholly inappropriate.

24 THE COURT: The only question is who's on the hook,
25 who's on the hook for any liability.

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 MR. GALLUB: I don't plan to ask that question, your
2 Honor.

3 THE COURT: Good. OK, thank you.

4 MR. GALLUB: Your Honor, there are -- Allen Leon is
5 not only being produced on behalf of Leon Petroleum and Leon
6 Holdings, but he's being produced on behalf of all of the 7 Tartan defendants.

8 THE COURT: OK.

9 MR. GALLUB: There are a number of discovery issues
10 that we have raised in the letter that go beyond the alter ego.
11 And some of them are very fundamental. And what we could do --

12 THE COURT: Such as?

13 MR. GALLUB: -- is two things --

14 Such as, there's been no agreements with regard to any 15 of the station operators other than one 1997 agreement with 16 respect to Mr. Nawaz, who's here today. None of the others --
17 we know there's another station, at least one and possibly two;
18 we don't have any of the contracts and agreements, your Honor,
19 we have no emails, we have no correspondence or communications
20 relating to any of the issues.

21 THE COURT: I'm sorry, between who and whom?

22 MR. GALLUB: Between the Tartan defendants and any of 23 the station operators or between the Leon parties and any of 24 the station operators. These are the operators --

25 THE COURT: And you called for that in writing?

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 MR. GALLUB: Sure we did.

2 THE COURT: I thought we were only discussing --

3 MR. GALLUB: What I was going to suggest?

4 THE COURT: Please, wait, Mr. Gallub. I thought we
5 were only discussing successor liability and alter ego. What's 6 the basis to not produce this other material?

7 MS. ROTHBERG: Your Honor, it's the reason why I was 8 suggesting the deposition. I've asked my client for these 9 records, and what I am told -- and I believe what he'll testify
10 to -- is that, one, he doesn't have any of the Tartan leasing
11 records, and that it is the custom of Leon Petroleum, when they 12 enter into leases with tenants, when the tenant leaves, they 13 hold the security deposit in the lease for one year. If 14 nothing pops up, they return the security deposit and they 15 throw the lease away, so they don't keep records on former 16 tenants. So we don't have those records, and we have said in 17 writing to Northville that our client doesn't have these 18 records.

19 THE COURT: So there are no objections. What he's 20 saying is he doesn't have the records you've requested?

21 MR. GALLUB: Yeah, what about the present tenant?

22 THE COURT: All right, fair enough, fair enough.
23 What about the present tenant?

24 MS. ROTHBERG: Your Honor, the present tenant wouldn't 25 have had anything to do with MTBE petroleum. It's a current --

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 they're a current operator, they stopped producing MTBE in 2 2004. These people are current leaseholders.

3 THE COURT: I don't know what that means. When did
4 they start?

5 MS. ROTHBERG: Oh, they didn't go back to that date,
6 your Honor. The way this works, there are operators that come
7 and go; it's not these are not long-term tenants.

8 THE COURT: So the current leaseholder is what, a
9 couple years?

10 MS. ROTHBERG: Might be a couple years. But, again, I
11 would urge -- ask that question in a deposition, who is your 12 current leaseholder, how long have they been there? The fact
13 of the matter is, I don't believe he has anyone that goes back
14 to 2004. I've asked that question -- 2005. These people don't 15 go back that far. So we would be producing current leases that 16 have nothing to do with MTBE --

17 MR. GALLUB: That's not so, your Honor. I'd like you
18 to know that there were open spill files on these properties,
19 and the one with regard to the Carle Place was just recently
20 closed. So the recent stuff with regard to the failure to 21 remediate the spill up until that point of the closure of the 22 spill file --

23 THE COURT: So to the extent --

24 MR. GALLUB: These are all relevant and fair game in 25 discovery.

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 THE COURT: Not all. The ones where the current
2 tenant there's an open spill file or a spill file that didn't
3 close until their tenancy, you should produce those lease files
4 before the deposition. That's it.

5 MS. ROTHBERG: Fair enough, Judge. I don't think
6 these tenants would have any connection to it but --

7 THE COURT: He just said if there's an open file.

8 MS. ROTHBERG: But the responsibility, to the extent
9 of that file being open, would be -- Leon Petroleum hasn't 10 said, I'm not taking responsibility. It's Leon Petroleum who 11 filed to close the spill files, it's not the tenant.

12 THE COURT: I don't know about the current tenant,
13 whether they had any duty to remediate.

14 MS. ROTHBERG: I'll speak --

15 THE COURT: Any current tenant --

16 MS. ROTHBERG: That would be one station, the CP
17 station.

18 THE COURT: That's the only one?

19 MS. ROTHBERG: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Is that right?

21 MR. GALLUB: With respect to the recent one, the CP
22 station? Yes.

23 THE COURT: Yes, with respect to the open spill file.

24 MS. ROTHBERG: That's just one station.

25 THE COURT: Produce the information with respect to

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 that one station before the deposition.

2 MS. ROTHBERG: Fine, Judge.

3 THE COURT: When is this deposition going is to be 4 held?

5 MR. GALLUB: There are other items as well. Let me
6 say, that's why we made this motion before Magistrate Freeman.

7 THE COURT: What are the other issues, Mr. Gallub?

8 MR. GALLUB: The other issue is, we don't have the 9 contracts and documents relating to the Tartan defendants' and 10 the Leon defendants' brokering of the sale of gasoline to the 11 station. We have one 1977 brokerage contract, which didn't 12 really apply to the sites in issue, and we have one 1999
13 brokerage, and they're not producing --

14 THE COURT: But what --

15 MR. GALLUB: -- the subsequent ones. The 1999 one was 16 redacted.

17 THE COURT: Excuse me. Please, when I start to talk,
18 would you please stop.

19 MR. GALLUB: Apologize.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 And what was Ms. Rothberg's response to that request
22 for these broker arrangements?

23 MR. GALLUB: The response was, here's the contract.
24 There's never been an answer as to why these documents haven't
25 been produced.

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 THE COURT: You just said the response was, here's the 2 contract?

3 MR. GALLUB: Here's the one contract, the 1977
4 brokerage contract.

5 THE COURT: Do you have any others?

6 MS. ROTHBERG: I've produced a more current one,
7 Judge, and we redacted the end date. They go actually a very
8 long period of time. So he, in fact, does have the current --

9 THE COURT: Do you have any others?

10 MS. ROTHBERG: Your Honor, I asked my client for all 11 of them, and I have produced all of them to Mr. Gallub. We 12 don't have --

13 THE COURT: There's no objection to it. She says
14 she's produced everything he has.

15 MS. ROTHBERG: They're all the same, by the way.

16 THE COURT: That's not my problem. You're supposed to 17 produce all of them.

18 MS. ROTHBERG: I understand but, yes, I have produced
19 what I have.

20 THE COURT: I can only deal with objections. I can't 21 go into the shop and look under the table. She says she's 22 produced all that her client has.

23 MR. GALLUB: I would ask that they unredact the end
24 date of the agreement that they produce, so that we have that 25 document in an unredacted form.

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 THE COURT: Why is that redacted?

2 MS. ROTHBERG: Well, Judge, he can certainly testify
3 to it. He was uncomfortable --

4 THE COURT: If he can testify to it, unredact it
5 immediately and produce an unredacted copy. There's an order.

6 Anything else, Mr. Gallub?

7 MR. GALLUB: Yeah. There have not been documents from 8 the entities, other than the DEC or from an environmental 9 contract, relating to the spills at the Mineola or the New Hyde
10 Park stations. The only thing that they have produced are DEC
11 files and some documents from an environmental contract and no
12 documents from the Tartan defendants, no documents from the 13 Leon parties regarding these spills. They're a big issue in 14 the case, and we're entitled --

15 THE COURT: Did they object? Did they object? How 16 did they respond to your request?

17 MR. GALLUB: They responded that everything's already 18 been produced and this has not been produced.

19 THE COURT: So everything's already been produced to 20 who?

21 MR. GALLUB: Has already previously been produced in 22 this action.

23 THE COURT: To who?

24 MR. GALLUB: To the parties.

25 THE COURT: To you?

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 MR. GALLUB: Well, I've looked at everything that was 2 produced, and these materials are not there.

3 THE COURT: All right, reproduce them to him, if you
4 have these deals, the DEC files.

5 MS. ROTHBERG: No, he's asking for files other than 6 the DEC files, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Oh. I thought he said DEC files.

8 MR. GALLUB: No, I'm saying that's the only thing what 9 was produced. I'm missing are the records from her actual 10 clients, from the documents from the parties to this 11 litigation, the Tartan defendants and --

12 THE COURT: Yeah, what documents from them?

13 MR. GALLUB: Documents relating what they have 14 relating to the spill.

15 THE COURT: Do you have documents relating to the 16 spill? If you do, you have to produce them.

17 MS. ROTHBERG: Your Honor, I can tell you we have 18 produced absolutely everything.

19 THE COURT: That's not an answer. Did you produce
20 documents relating to the spills?

21 MS. ROTHBERG: To the extent we had them, yes, your 22 Honor, to the extent we have them. And we have produced
23 documents that were generated by consultants to our client
24 cleaning up the spills.

25 THE COURT: Why don't you produce them again to

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 Mr. Gallub, specifically that, so he can't say he missed them
2 somehow.

3 MS. ROTHBERG: I'll produce everything all over again,
4 Judge. It is what it is. I don't have more files that -- I'm 5 not withholding anything.

6 THE COURT: All right, fine, produce it to him again.
7 I can only rule on objections, not on nonexistent documents.

8 MS. ROTHBERG: I have no objection to producing them,
9 your Honor.

10 THE COURT: I know, so produce them again.

11 MR. GALLUB: There is an objection that was made by 12 the Tartan defendants. They have objected with regard to every 13 discovery request being asked for any document that was either
14 generated or received after January of 2004, on the grounds
15 that they stopped selling MTBE. But as I indicated to your 16 Honor, there is an open spill file that has just been closed at 17 the latter part of last year. There are documents that may 18 very well be probative that have been generated --

19 THE COURT: Objection overruled. Any outstanding open
20 spill, you still have to produce whatever records your client
21 has that relate to that site where there's an open spill file
22 or that has been --

23 MS. ROTHBERG: The site overall, not the spill?

24 THE COURT: Open spill file post 2004.

25 MS. ROTHBERG: That's only the CP station.

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 THE COURT: Then that's what it is, but the ruling is
2 clear on the record. Any open spill file that postdates 2004,
3 your objection is overruled, you have to produce the records.

4 MS. ROTHBERG: If I could understand what the records
5 are: As to the spill itself, we've produced everything that 6 relates to the spill.

7 THE COURT: You made an objection. You said, we're 8 not going to produce anything post 2004. I'm ruling on the 9 objection: If there was an open spill file post 2004, you have 10 to produce whatever records you have that relate to that site.

11 MS. ROTHBERG: OK.

12 THE COURT: OK?

13 MS. ROTHBERG: Thank you, Judge.

14 THE COURT: I guess we're done. Thank you. Right?
15 Or was there more Mr. Gallub?

16 MR. GALLUB: No, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Good, thank you.

18 MS. ROTHBERG: Judge, if I dare, do you want to set
19 a -- is there a schedule we ought to be setting after the 20 deposition?

21 THE COURT: After the deposition, Mr. Gallub will come
22 back to court if he wants to renew his application for more 23 documents and then another deposition. So it's premature to 24 schedule a summary judgment. If there's some reason he's 25 satisfied after you reproduce some documents and after the

19fkmtbc

Conference

1 deposition, you can jointly request my clerk to schedule a
2 premotion conference.

3 MS. ROTHBERG: Thank you, Judge, thank you.

4 MR. GALLUB: Thank you, your Honor.
